Day 2: French Quarter

This morning, visit the Hermann-Grima House for an old-fashioned Christmas and learn about Creole holiday traditions as you admire the home as it appeared in the 19th century. Afterwards, introduce yourself to the city's famous French Quarter on a walking tour that features the majestic St. Louis Cathedral, one of the city's most recognizable landmarks. You may even hear some carolers filling Jackson Square with song on the way to Pontalba, the oldest apartment building in the French Quarter. Dressed in their holiday finery, these are some of the most impressive historic structures in the city. Head over to Café Du Monde for a taste of a true New Orleans favorite – beignets! Explore Pirate's Alley and the bustling French Marketplace, where you'll stand in awe of a 30-foot tree topped with a Fleur de Lis. Spend the afternoon strolling around the French Quarter and see the dazzling hotel lobbies and antique shops on Royal Street. Tonight, learn how to cook for the holidays New Orleans-style! During a demonstration at the New Orleans School of Cooking, your chef reveals everything Louisiana cuisine offers. The magic continues at Celebration in the Oaks, a New Orleans tradition, with a train ride that takes you through lit bridges, lagoons and gardens.

Day 3: French Quarter

Set out on a panoramic city tour with a local guide. Start by seeing the St. Louis Cemetery #3; opened in 1854, it holds some of the most elaborate crypts found in the city's cemeteries. Relax during a drive along the shoreline of Lake Pontchartrain. This romantic road eventually leads to St. Charles Avenue, whisking you past gorgeous mansions and two world-famous universities, Tulane and Loyola. Next, enjoy lunch and a holiday-themed musical revue by the Victory Belles at the National World War II Museum. Take a walk through history to learn about the American wartime experience.
