Day 3: The Louvre, the Lisa, and Paris as You Please

Step into the shoes of a local and navigate Le Métro – your main mode of transportation for the week. Get to know this underground system with a local pro, giving you the freedom to set off later as you wish. First stop – the Louvre Museum. The ethereal glass pyramid at the Louvre's* entrance serves as your gateway into another realm, where ancient sculptures lead to 19th-century canvases. Wander past and marvel at the palette progeny of Raphael and Botticelli before making your way to Da Vinci's renowned Mona Lisa. Enjoy the afternoon at leisure to explore Paris as you please. Perhaps you'll take a leisurely stroll through the Tuileries Garden or elegant Place Vendôme with its glittering vitrines displaying jewelry and high-fashion designs. As your day comes to a close, make the most of an evening at leisure. Or, enjoy an optional dinner at the dynamic Paradis Latin for a champagne-flowing, can-can kicking, music-driven night at the cabaret.

Day 4: Le Marais and the Local Foodie

Your cultural lesson continues this morning with a culinary quest through Le Marais. Join a local foodie on the metro and venture to the neighborhood's beloved venues, getting a taste of the cozy shops and Parisian flavors. Along the way, meander through the flourishing trees and bright grassy patches of Place des Vosges, the oldest town square in all of Paris. Try some sweets and enjoy a tasting of cheese before pausing at a local bistro for a glass of wine and the plat du jour. Take a walk down to Île de la Cité to snap a picture of the awe-inspiring Notre Dame or relax in one of Le Marais' cozy cafés before visiting the highly acclaimed Musée D'Orsay and enjoy your included ticket to this former railroad station, which now houses some of the world's best impressionist art.
